

Supporting Your Senior Pet at Home

Comfort, connection, and quality of life matter at every stage of aging.

1

Focus on Comfort

- Soft bedding and cozy resting spots
- Mobility support (ramps, rugs, lift support)
- Routines that reduce stress
- Quiet, safe places to rest

2

Pay Attention to Small Changes

- Appetite
- Energy & activity
- Mobility
- Sleep patterns
- Behavior & mood

Small changes can tell an important story over time.

3

Keep Doing What They Love

- Favorite walks & sniff time
- Car rides & new sights
- Playtime & enrichment
- Family routines & special treats

More good days can still include meaningful moments together.

4

Ask for Support

- Quality of life guidance
- Comfort care support
- Resources for aging pets
- Compassionate conversations

You don't have to navigate senior pet care alone.

Your insight is powerful.

You know your pet better than anyone. We're here to help every step of the way.

Ask us about senior pet quality of life resources.

Compassionate. Personal. Local.

